Reference No:	P47231
Grade:	E
HERA:	ATF
Reporting To:	Director of Education
Responsible For:	-

The above full-time post is available 1st September 2014 to 31st of August 2015 in the College of Humanities.

Job Description

Main purpose of the job:

You will have responsibility for supporting the design, development and production of teaching and learning material and deliver ancient language modules, in particular Latin, within Classics and Ancient History. You will work with Department lecturers and the Director of Education to ensure the efficient and effective delivery of teaching programmes in accordance with the College's education strategy. You will also contribute directly to foundation teaching in one or more of the disciplinary areas in the College and to the development and implementation of innovative teaching practices across the College.

Main duties and accountabilities:

1. Teach as a member of a teaching team within an established programme of study namely Classics and Ancient History.
2. Teach in a variety of settings from small group tutorials to large lectures, ensuring content, methods of delivery and learning materials meet the defined learning objectives for individual teaching sessions, specifically Latin.
3. Develop own teaching materials, methods and approaches.
4. Supervise the work of students, provide advice on study skills and help them with learning problems.
5. Set and mark assignments and set examination questions as well as assessing the work and progress of students by reference to defined criteria and provide constructive feedback to students.
6. Seek ways of improving performance by reflecting on teaching design and delivery and obtaining and analysing feedback.
7. Supervise students' projects under guidance and supervision.

Liaison and Networking

The post holder will build internal contacts and participate in internal networks for the exchange of information and to form relationships for future collaboration and join appropriate external networks to share information and ideas.

Managing people

Manage own teaching, scholarly and administrative activities and supervise students' fieldwork and placements.

Initiative, problem-solving and decision-making

1. Deal with problems which may affect the delivery of own teaching and contribute to decisions affecting the work of the team in Classics and Ancient History.
2. Develop initiative, creativity and judgement in applying appropriate approaches to teaching and learning support and scholarly activities.
3. Share responsibility in deciding how to deliver modules and assess students.
4. Contribute to collaborative decision making with colleagues on academic content, and on the assessment of students' work.

Planning and managing resources

1. Plan own day-to-day activity within the framework of the agreed programme.
2. Co-ordinate own work with that of others to avoid conflict or duplication of effort.
3. Contribute to the planning of teaching programmes.
4. Use teaching resources and facilities as appropriate.
5. Plan and manage own teaching and tutorials.
